

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS

This multidisciplinary introduction surveys the history, theory, law, and comparative analysis of American religious liberty from the earliest colonial period through the latest Supreme Court cases.

The new third edition of
RELIGION AND THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL EXPERIMENT
features:

A comprehensive multidisciplinary approach to the analysis of American religious liberty.

Seven new cases decided by the Supreme Court since publication of the previous edition.

Three new chapters addressing the free exercise of religion, religion and public life, and religious organizations and the law.

An expanded final chapter devoted to comparing contemporary American religious liberty law with international human rights standards.

Useful resources, including appendices with comprehensive tables of all Supreme Court religious liberty cases and all drafts of the religion clauses.
