THE GREAT ARAB CONQUESTS

How the Spread of Islam Changed the World We Live In

Hugh Kennedy

From a leading expert in Arabic history, an engaging history of the great Islamic expansion that carved out an empire from Spain to Asia

In just over one hundred years following the death of Mohammed in 632, Arabs had subjugated a territory with an east-west expanse greater than the Roman Empire, and they did it in about one-half the time. In The Great Arab Conquests, academic historian Hugh Kennedy presents a sweeping narrative of how the Arab armies conquered almost everything in their path, and brings to light the unique characteristics of Islamic rule. This is an astonishing remaking of the political and religious map of the world.

GOD'S TERRORISTS

The Wahhabi Cult and the Hidden Roots of Modern Jihad

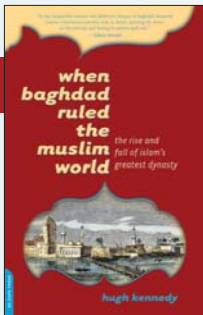

Charles Allen

What are the roots of today's militant fundamentalism in the Muslim world? In this insightful and wide-ranging history, Charles Allen finds an answer in an eighteenth-century reform movement of Muhammed ibn Abd al-Wahhab and his followers—the Wahhabi—who sought the restoration of Islamic purity and declared violent jihad on all who opposed them. The ranks of today's Taliban and al-Qaeda are filled with young men trained in Wahhabi theology. God's Terrorists sheds much-needed light on the origins of modern terrorism and shows how this dangerous ideology lives on today.

WHEN BAGHDAD RULED THE MUSLIM WORLD

The Rise and Fall of Islam's Greatest Dynasty

The "golden age of Islam" in the eighth and ninth centuries was as significant to world history as the Roman Empire was in the first and second centuries. The rule of Baghdad's Abbasid Dynasty stretched from Tunisia to India, and its legacy influenced politics and society for years to come. In this deftly woven narrative, Hugh Kennedy introduces us to the rich history and flourishing culture of the period.
