REVISED AND UPDATED EDITION

The Dark Side of the Screen Film Noir

Foster Hirsch

“A well-written, imaginatively illustrated book.”
—Philip French

Covering over a hundred films and featuring nearly two hundred stills, this book is the essential guide to the study of noir. Topics addressed range from the iconic performances of Burt Lancaster, Joan Crawford, and Humphrey Bogart to the camera angles, lighting effects, and story lines of directors Fritz Lang, Billy Wilder, and Orson Welles. With a new epilogue that freshly examines the legacy of noir, as well as several recently rediscovered gems, Foster Hirsch's work on one of today's most pervasive screen influences remains an unsurpassed classic.

The B List

The National Society of Film Critics on the Low-Budget Beauties, Genre-Bending
Mavericks, and Cult Classics We Love

Edited by David Sterritt and John Anderson

“[A] tome that will set nicely on the shelf beside your movie collection and provide rewarding reading as a supplement to the film viewing experience.” —Editors Guild

Once the neglected Hollywood stepchild, the genre of the B movie has grown into a more inclusive category, embracing films that fall outside the mainstream by dint of their budgets, their visions, their grit, and occasionally by their lack of so-called “good taste.” The films in The B List, presented by the National Society of Film Critics, are offbeat, unpredictable, and decidedly idiosyncratic, and they reflect the essence of an important genre that deserves recognition.
