

New Edition from Westview Press!

“Robert Dayley and Clark Neher have written a superb survey describing political developments in Southeast Asia and explaining the historical and cultural underpinnings that have contributed to these developments.”

— John J. Brandon, The Asia Foundation

This balanced and comprehensive survey of Southeast Asia pays special attention to political development, institutions, democratization, and foreign policy to facilitate cross-country comparisons. In addition to new resource guides, maps, and comparison tables, the fifth edition features:

- Country-by-country coverage of Thailand, the Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei, Burma, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, and—new in this edition—Timor-Leste.
- Careful analysis of both the diversity and commonalities characterizing the nations of the region.
- Enhanced analysis of the impact of China’s rise on Southeast Asia.
- New consideration of the “War on Terror” and the role of political Islam throughout Southeast Asia.
