

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“Essential Criminology is a text for this century. It puts ‘crime’ in the context of globalization, communication, privatization, disease, security and terrorism. ... It really is essential.”

— Peter K. Manning, Northeastern University

This bestselling core text has been fully revised and updated to address cutting-edge theory and the six fundamental world changes that are altering the way we think about, react to, and prosecute crime. Along with compelling real-world examples and a comprehensive review of the field, the third edition features:

UPDATED MATERIAL that reflects globalization’s influences, international terrorism and changing perceptions of national security, and the decline of group solidarity.

NEW CONSIDERATION OF COMPARATIVE CRIMINOLOGY throughout the text that recognizes how global interconnectedness is altering the discipline of criminology.

EXPANDED DISCUSSION of the criminal justice system as a business that commands a growing number of employees and percentage of state budgets in the United States.

July 2009, 504 pages, 978-0-8133-4416-4, $48.00, pb
