

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“SarDesai provides the most comprehensive and complete, yet organized and accessible, single volume history for students of Southeast Asia.”

— Michael G. Vann, California State University, Sacramento

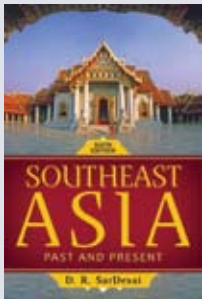

Tracing Southeast Asian history from ancient to modern times, this book introduces the regions and peoples of Myanmar, Thailand, Malaysia, Brunei, Singapore, Indonesia, East Timor, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, and the Philippines. The updated sixth edition features:

- » An Asian point of view throughout that avoids over emphasizing the importance of the period of European colonial rule and offers new perspectives on the colonial experience and nationalist movements.
- » Thematic and chronological approaches, integrating historical information with the study of colonialism, nationalism, domestic problems, and international relations.
- » Coverage of important recent events, including the Asian tsunami, terrorism, avian flu, achievements of ASEAN, cyclone Nargis, the monk uprising in Myanmar, and more.
