Hailed as “a teacher’s dream” (Art Journal), this classic bestselling text for courses in methods of art history is now updated in this second edition. Notable features include:

Accessible presentation of sophisticated topics: Suitable for introductory art history courses as well as graduate methods courses, this book presents difficult concepts in lucid, accessible prose.

Extensive illustrations: More than 90 illustrations integrated throughout, along with 8 full-color plates, provide vivid examples for students.

Focus on key methodologies: The methodologies discussed—formal analysis, iconology and iconography, Marxism, feminism, biography and autobiography, psychoanalysis, structuralism, race and gender—reflect the multiplicity of meanings in an artistic image.

New material: The second edition includes nineteen new images; new sections on race, gender, colonialism, and orientalism; and a new epilogue that approaches a single painting to illustrate the different methodological viewpoints.
