

NEW FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

MARCH 2010, 488 PAGES, 978-0-8133-4487-4, $49.00, PB

“This anthology, with its fine introduction penned by the editors and featuring carefully selected articles addressing absolutely central topics ... renders the laborious ritual of assembling appropriate course packs totally obsolete. ... An intellectually sound and pedagogically helpful project.”

—Andrei S. Markovits, University of Michigan;
coauthor of *Gaming the World and Offside

This comprehensive collection focuses on sports culture and its relationship to institutions in the surrounding society. Key features include:

- » Section introductions by the editors that connect the readings to broader conversations and explore relevant theoretical perspectives such as new institutionalism, cultural hegemony, social capital, symbolic interaction, and cultural construction.
- » A core of enlightening scholarly readings by eminent scholars such as Michael Messner, Randall Collins, and Loïc Wacquant.
- » Short and provocative articles by leading sports journalists, which supplement the readings and promise to engage students and stimulate serious debates.
