ABRAHAM

THE FIRST HISTORICAL BIOGRAPHY

DAVID ROSENBERG

“One of the most thrilling and perceptive triumphs of imagination and scholarship I have ever had the pleasure to read.” —New York Sun

The world’s major religions—Judaism, Christianity, and Islam—find a common root in one man: Abraham. Yet Abraham looms so large in the realm of world religions that he has remained a ward of the Divine rather than a flesh-and-blood citizen of Humanity. Breaking new ground, David Rosenberg portrays Abraham as a man whose whole life, and therefore his legacy, is informed by the Sumerian culture that produced him, while revealing that the original story embedded in the Bible is actually our oldest historical biography. Rosenberg does more than present a founding spiritual figure and his dynamic relationships with father, wife, and son. We witness this man as he transforms his heritage into an anxious embrace of religion with secular culture—the human condition in which we are still enfolded today. Abraham is a brilliant literary excavation of the ancient cultures from which our modern world has grown.
