

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“The best urban sociology textbook available!”

—JOE FEAGIN, TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

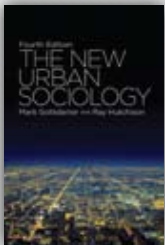

This book breaks down the traditional city/suburb dichotomy and considers the impact of social factors such as race, class, gender, economics, culture, and politics on the development of metropolitan regions. The fourth edition offers the most up-to-date, accessible urban sociology text available, and at the best value. Features include:

- » Unique integrated sociospatial approach that emphasizes the interaction between society and space to demonstrate how spatial arrangements influence human behavior and how individuals alter spatial arrangements.
- » Engaging pedagogy, including updated tables with the latest census data; boxed features that illuminate important concepts and provide concrete examples; and key terms and discussion questions at the end of each chapter.
- » Updates throughout, including expanded discussions of globalization; urbanization in developing nations; urban policies in the developing world; the effect of the economic crisis on housing markets, public policy, and urban development.
