

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

This essential text continues to provide updated, comprehensive, country-by-country overviews of critical contemporary events and issues in the Middle East and North Africa. Key features of the sixth edition include:

- A new introductory chapter on the region's physical and social geography; national, religious, ethnic, and tribal divisions; economic conditions; demographic conditions; and political systems.
- Vital new updates throughout, including Iran's nuclear policies; political dynamics in postwar Iraq; Israel's post-Sharon politics; the fragmentation of Palestinian representation between Hamas and Fatah; recent developments in Syria, Turkey, and Lebanon; and much more.
- Authoritative coverage of each country's government and politics provided by a leading specialist writing specifically for this volume.
- Systematically organized chapters, including a data table for each country, which allow for easy comparison and contrast across countries on fundamental topics.
