

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“Kim’s book is the best general survey of metaphysics of mind. It brims with arresting arguments and lucid points of exposition.”

—Bernard W. Kobes, Arizona State University

Jaegwon Kim’s Philosophy of Mind has for many years been the classic, comprehensive survey of the subject for upper-level undergraduates and graduate students. Now updated throughout, the third edition includes:

Two New Chapters on Consciousness. To reflect the ongoing surge of activity in consciousness studies, Jaegwon Kim adds a new chapter on the nature of consciousness and a new chapter on the status of consciousness.

Thoroughly Revised Chapter on Behaviorism. Revisions highlight behaviorism’s continuing, if not always acknowledged, significance and its continuity with functionalism.

Enhanced Chapter on Substance Dualism. This is the only text of its kind that provides a serious and respectful treatment of substance dualism.

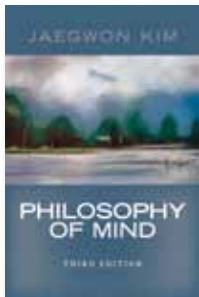

Updated Discussions of Computation and Thinking.
