

NEW FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“This compendium contains the richest substantive contribution to the study of international law published within the last two decades. . . . It is highly recommended for both undergraduate and graduate courses in international law.”

—Christopher C. Joyner, Georgetown University

Featuring new, original essays as well as classic readings, Sanford R. Silverburg’s International Law provides students with a timely overview of key issues in the field. Features include:

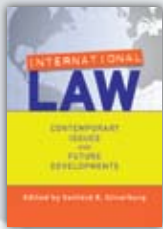

Current, compelling topics including terrorism, global environmental regulations, Responsibility to Protect (R2P) and universal jurisdiction, the International Court of Justice (ICJ), and much more.

A diverse list of expert authors—ranging from political science and law school instructors to professional researchers and lawyers in private practice—offering multinational perspectives on ongoing and newly emergent issues in international law.
