

AN ARCHITECTURE CLASSIC FROM WESTVIEW PRESS

This best-selling, illustrated survey of Western architecture continues to be the only text in the field to expertly examine architecture as a cultural phenomenon as well as an artistic and technological achievement.

The second edition includes:

Coverage on Postmodernism and its relationship to the Modernist era.

A reorganization of Mesopotamian and Prehistoric architecture based on thematic lines of development.

An expanded chapter on Medieval architecture, including developments from the end of the Roman Empire to the Renaissance.

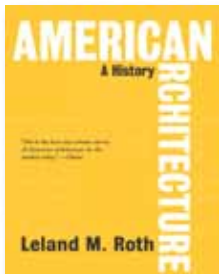

And an expanded art program that includes over 500 images in black and white and color.

Comprehensive, clearly written, affordable, and accessible, Understanding Architecture is a classic review of Western architecture.
