NEW FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

This new collection of original essays examines the contemporary state of the ghetto in all its forms and is an essential addition to courses on urban studies and sociology. Key features include:

Original, Authoritative Content: Prominent scholars writing specifically for this book cover all of the critical contemporary issues and debates surrounding the ghetto in one accessible volume.

Global Scope: Instead of focusing exclusively on the African-American ghetto, the essays in this book also cover banlieues, barrios, favelas, shantytowns, and slums around the world, describing and analyzing other ghettos in their own contexts and allowing for meaningful international comparisons.

Top Scholars: Contributors include Loïc Wacquant, Peter Marcuse, Elijah Anderson, Sharon Zukin, Alan Gilbert, Michel Agier, AbdouMaliq Simone, Nikki Jones, Christina Jackson, Bruce D. Haynes, Ernesto Castañeda, Brasilmar Ferreira Nunes, Leticia Veloso, and Ray Hutchison.
