

NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS!

“This book is indispensable for scholars and policymakers interested in understanding America’s past and current involvement in the Middle East. The essays are authoritative, compelling, and engaging. Collectively, they represent some of the smartest analysis on how the United States and the Middle East got where they are today.” —Toby C. Jones, Rutgers University

The new fifth edition of The Middle East and the United States features:

FIVE ENTIRELY NEW CHAPTERS COVERING:

- The importance of ideology to U.S.-Iranian relations under Clinton, Bush, and Obama.
- Contemporary U.S.-Syrian relations.
- The superpowers and the Middle East throughout the Cold War.
- U.S. relations with al-Qa’ida.
- The Bush and Obama Administrations and the Arab-Israeli Conflict.

TEN REVISED AND UPDATED CHAPTERS into the Obama administration, with more emphasis on current events in the region.
