

FORTHCOMING NEW EDITION FROM WESTVIEW PRESS

Integrating political events with cultural, economic, and intellectual movements, Modern Japan: A Historical Survey provides a balanced and authoritative survey of modern Japanese history. The text covers the country's history from the Tokugawa period to the present, in a style that is accessible to students and general readers.

The new fifth edition of Modern Japan features:

- Updates on Japan in the post 9/11 era and the country's relationship with the Middle East;
- A review of the pivotal impact of the 2011 earthquake, tsunami, and subsequent nuclear accident;
- Discussion of the recent tumultuous change of leadership and Japan's current economic and global status;
- The secret diplomatic correspondence only recently released on WikiLeaks;
- And an updated chronological chart, list of prime ministers, and bibliography.
